20 TOP NEW LOOKS

What a pretty look for fine, straight locks! The cap cut is snipped at the ends so itty-bitty pieces tickle the temples. Other elements of interest include jagged fringe—great for spotlighting the eyes—and baby-blonde color. HAIR BY WENDY HIGGINS FOR MITCHELL'S SALON & SPA, ORCHHARD, OH. MAKEUP BY LISA BRADY. Razor Rule

If you spend a lot of time outdoors or at the gym, a shorter cut could make your life so much easier! Here, razored layers only need a bit of gel and the fingers to create a look that's intentionally messy. That means you don't have to worry about hair coming undone.

Full Speed Ahead

With ultra-thick, naturally curly hair, this young woman had her lengthy locks stripped into a short cut with longer, textured sides and top. Hair can be finger-styled for texture or blown-out smooth, as shown here. When she hits the gym, she only needs to add a headband for an easy, off-the-face effect.

Layer Player

Face-framing pieces and stacked layers further back form the basis of this look, which goes from work to workout with ease. You can tuck sides behind the ears, slip into a headband or just let it fall as is. If you need to shampoo after exercise, this great cut will fall into place with minimal styling.

Wind-Swept

A longer bob that's graduated on the sides is perfect for anyone who doesn't want to go too short. When the wind hits it, texture and movement are enhanced through the back. Shorter hair in front is styled into a defined curl that can be caught with a barrette or hair pin for control.

Headband Helper

Headbands will keep your hair out of your face while you work out, whether it's outdoors or at the gym. Plus, they add a decorative touch to your 'do, and are one of the hottest hair accessories around. Pick one (or more) to match your every outfit. We especially love the generous width (2 1/2") and clean, all-cotton feel of the HB HairJewels Lucy Collection Solid Stretch Headband, shown here in Cherry Red, $3.50; also available in black, white, aqua, rose, rainbow, and topaz, at hairboutique.com.
